“The person, including the body, is completely entrusted to himself, and it is in the unity of body and soul that the person is the subject of his own moral acts. The person, by the light of reason and the support of virtue, discovers in the body the anticipatory signs, the expression and the promise of the gift of self, in conformity with the wise plan of the Creator” (VS 48).

Franghias Kavertzas, "En Toi se réjouit", Petit Palais, Musée des Beaux-arts de la Ville de Paris
