

FELLOW APPLICATION

FRANCISCAN UNIVERSITY of STEUBENVILLE • MASTER'S IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Franciscan University of Steubenville is excited to announce a new Fellows Program for those pursuing a master's degree in criminal justice at Franciscan University.

The Fellows Program will award three graduate students each with a $3,000 scholarship. The scholarship funds can be applied to tuition and be used at any time throughout the course of study. The Fellows Program is highly competitive and applicants will undergo an initial committee review.

Franciscan University encourages justice practitioners of significant experience and excellent character with a willingness to spread the mission of Franciscan University and its Criminal Justice Program to apply.

The review process will consider these factors:

- * Experiential background
- * Quality of previous experience and its impact on the justice system
- * Academic performance at the undergraduate level
- * Personal reputation and character
- * Compatibility with Franciscan University's Criminal Justice Program mission
- * Willingness to mentor undergraduate criminal justice students
- * Attendance at an academic session, which is open to the public, on Franciscan's campus

Fellows Program applicants should provide a resume, cover letter, and a two-to-three-page statement outlining how the applicant meets the criteria stated above. In addition, the applicant must provide three letters of reference regarding personal reputation and character.

The due date for the fall 2024 term is March 1, 2024. Applicants may be either part- or full-time graduate students but will need to use the awarded funds. (See back for application form.)
